Memo for Record: On November 10th, I received a telephone call from Miss Lucille Hartman concerning a [redacted] Miss Hartman advised that her company was investigating the background of Mr. [redacted] for the purpose of employment and that she had been unable to find any information on his background, particularly college education. When she confronted [redacted] with this, he told her that he was an ex-CIA employee and that was the reason why there was no information available on him. Miss Hartman asked that I check our records and let her know if [redacted] was formerly employed by the agency. A check with the Office of Personnel and the Office of Security was negative.
